band needs a lawyer. It seems odd that a woman would wait 11 years to introduce a man to his daughter. If legally he has a financial obligation, of course he must live up to it but there should be no socializing or "getting acquainted." This woman sounds like had news.

Confidential to Hopeful: Since you are looking for a girl who looks like Natalie Wood, I'd like to ask you a question. Do you look like Paul Newman?

Confidential to "COOL CAT": "Cold Mackerel," you mean. And your fiancée sounds like she could go bear-huntin' with a switch. I think you two deserve each other.

To learn the knack of feeling comfortable with the opposite sex, send for ANN LANDERS' booklet, "How To Be Date Bait," enclosing with your request 20 cents in coin and a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

LITTLE MISS FLORA IS

"Golly, Roy, I need help. My lawn, camellias and shrubs all look anemic . . . and watering and fertilizing just haven't helped."

Your trouble could be your soil Miss Flora . . . and your water, here, runs over 10 times as alkaline as it should be, so even good soil becomes way too alkaline in a short time.

Bring in your soil in a cup or glass jar and we'll test it free and tell you exactly what to do. This free service will save you a lot of work and money spent in doing wrong things.

This is one of Kato's many free services which we do seven days a week. And don't forget, for all do-it-yourself home owners, Kato's service includes free landscape design. Free sprinkler design and free garden light planning. Or just call FA 1-6369 if you have any questions on growing things.

Representatives from chapters throughout the United States and Hawaii will be in attendance when this 59th annual convention convenes in the Olympic Hotel on May 29th for a week long session.

Highlights of the convention will be the national public speaking contest for the A. P. Giannini Educational Endowment Prizes and the national debate contest for the Jessie H. Jones National Convention Debate Fund, as well as the election of national officers for the Institute.

Delegates attending from Harbor District Chapter are Frank Schiavone, president, (First Western Bank & Trust Company, Lakewood Office); Thomas W. Clements, first vice president, (Security First National Bank, Compton Branch); G. Bernadine Kepka, second vice president, (Bank of America, Third & Long Beach Blvd. Branch); Majel Dick, women's committee chairman, (Bank of America, Belmont Shore Branch); and Sibyl Snead, member national women's committee, (Bank of America, Torrance Branch).

Bridge Club

Mrs. R. K. Petrat, 2942 Opal St., entertained her bridge club May 16. Members attending were: Mmes. Clyde Anderson, Les Demott, Cliff Greybehl, John Moore, Tom Randall, Murray Rednick, and E. V. Winkelbauer.

Dessert was served before the games started. First prize winner was Mrs. Randall, with Mrs. Moore winning the second prize.

Gourmets
Compete At Parish Event

Over 70 members of St. Margaret Mary's Catholic Church will compete for the title, "Chef of the Year," when Sacred Heart Guild hosts a Gourmet Dinner in the parish hall on Saturday evening, June 3, at 7 p.m.

Included among the chefs are two husband-wife combinations and two mother-daughter entries.

Frank C. Fisher and Gene Palombi will compete against each other as main dish chefs, and against their wives, Edna and Eleanor, who have entered a dessert and a salad respectively.

Mrs. Joseph Pizzo and daughter, Kathy, are entering a main dish and a bread. Mrs. Anthony Brandelli will prepare rolls, while Mrs. Carlos Maya, her daughter, will compete for the family as a salad chef.

Separate prizes will be awarded the best chef in each of the four categories. One of these four will also be selected as "Chef of the Year" and awarded a set of Corning Ware.

Arrangements for the novel dinner are being completed by Mmes. Timothy Brenham, Donald Coughlin, Norman Deprey, Richard Kitch, Peter Perishula and Michael Twiss.

Tickets are still available for non-contestants and may be obtained by calling Mrs. Richard Kitch. None will be sold at the door.

Communist
Film Will Be Shown

Women for Good Government will present a new film entitled "Crisis for Americans—Communist Accent on Youth", on May 26 at the Assistance League Clubhouse, Weymouth Corners, San Pedro, at 8 p.m.

The film has been produced under the auspices of Pepperdine College, written produced and narrated by Harry Von Zell.

It resulted from the colleges' Freedom Forum program, under the direction of William J. Teague, vice-president of Pepperdine.

Teague appears in the film, making a comparison of the communist and American systems.

An Army psychiatrist and a university professor also give their views on the attitude and behavior of American youth toward communism.

President Holly Holmes will introduce young Torch-bearers from three local chapters, who will give their "Challenge." Mrs. Holmes is founder of the teen-age patriotic organization.

"A cordial invitation is extended to adults and teenagers alike," said Mrs. Holmes, "this provocative film should be presented to all civic groups and throughout our school districts."

Groups interested in obtaining prints of the film may make inquiry at Pepperdine College.

MATERNITY TEA . . . Mrs. Gene Crenshaw and Mrs. Bernard Stevens of Torrance are served tea by Mrs. Olin Grubb of Harbor City at a recent maternity tea at the Bay Harbor Osteopathic Hospital. Tea is served to expectant mothers every other month by members of the Hospital Guild in hopes of making the hospital stay for new mothers more pleasant through an orientation program.

Tetanus
Clinic To
Held Here

Torrance Junior Woman's club in cooperation with the Los Angeles County Medical Assn. will sponsor a series of tetanus clinics here beginning June 1. The clinic will be held at the Greenwood school, 1520 Greenwood Ave. from 7 to 9 p.m.

The second clinic is slated for July 13 and the third will be seven months later with the exact time to be announced.

According to the Medical Assn. 320 persons were victims of tetanus last year. The clinics are being held as precautions against puncture wounds which are so prevalent at this time of the year with persons working in gardens. The disease is transmitted by grass eating animals. The three shots provide almost perfect immunization against the disease.

All area residents are invited to take advantage of the clinic.

Bird Club
Meets Sunday

Harbor Bird Hobbyists Club will meet at the Malibu home of William Lanky on May 28. A pot luck luncheon will be served at 1 p.m. followed by the regular business meeting. Anyone interested in further information may call Mrs. Betty Tresler.

Anniversary

The Pen & Quill restaurant in Manhattan Beach was chosen by Mr. and Mrs. Lester H. Bergen of Torrance as the setting for a dinner party when they celebrated their seventh wedding anniversary. They were toasted on the occasion by Mr. and Mrs. John E. Bergen of Hermosa Beach.

Local Equestrians Enter
San Gabriel Horse Show

Attracting wide spread interest among area residents is the All-Arabian Horse Show scheduled for Saturday and Sunday, May 27 and 28, at Santa Anita Race Track in Arcadia. This show the largest Arabian Show ever produced in the United States is presented by the Arabian Horse Association of Southern California and sponsored by the San Gabriel Valley Guilds of Los Angeles Children's Hospital.

Breeding classes will be presented during the morning hours, and will offer an excellent opportunity to study and judge the Arabian horse from one year old foals to the Champion mares and stallions. The afternoon ring performances will show the true versatility of these outstanding horses in classes of English, western jumping and stock. In the formal and informal driving and costume classes, the Arabian offers an unusual and incomparable performance.

The feature in Saturday afternoon's ring performance will be Zadir, the famous liberty stallion from Cal-Poly. Sunday, the Arabian Association members will open the pages of history with their unique Historical Parade.

Already entered in the Show is Miss Anita L. Lamont of Torrance. Exhibitors representing the Peninsula will be the Earl Fosters, Jack Hesnaults, J. G. Barnards, Robert B. Walkers, Victor Coltons and Mrs. Jeanette Waterhouse. Redondo Beach will be represented by the Marvin Moores.

Occasion Is Dominated by Heart Theme

Miss Ethel Hargrove was honoree at a wedding shower given by Mrs. Ross McCollum, 1329 Florwood, on May 10. She and her fiancé, Thomas Dorman, have set June 24 as their wedding day.

Empey, King McFadden, Lavern Gleason, James Denos, James Frayne, Simon Caganan, William Dorman, Russell Hargrove, and Miss Pauline Mathews.

Also present were: Donna Dorman, Carol Bruzold, and Francis Zillanzana. Not present but sending gifts were: Mmes. E. G. Adams, Paul Schneider, Steven Staan, Goldie McCollum and Miss Anita Crow.

Prizes were awarded to: Mrs. McClure, Mrs. Gleason and Mrs. Empey. A special prize was given to Miss Pauline Mathews.

Mother-Daughter
Banquet Friday

"Spoons and Aprons" will be the theme for the Mother-Daughter banquet sponsored by the Fellowship Guild Girls of the Western Avenue Baptist Church on Friday, May 26, at 6:30 p.m.

The dining hall of the Torrance First Baptist Church will be the scene of an Apron Parade. Guest speaker for the evening will be Miss Faye Deaton, past president of the Southern California Baptist Fellowship Guild Girls. There will be trio selections sung by the Western Avenue Baptist Treble-Aires.

Mrs. Bonnie Rudeen, Fellowship Guild sponsor, is in charge of the banquet.

Alums Plan
Husband Night

South Bay Alpha Gamma Delta Alumnae will hold their annual "Husbands' Night" on June 3. The occasion will be observed when the group chartered a bus to attend the Dodger - Giant baseball game at the coliseum.

The group met May 17 at the home of Mrs. Ed Greenblatt, 211 Calle de Arboles. W. G. Dickman was co-hostess.

A Palos Verdes Florist gave a demonstration on artificial flower arrangements.
